

Holiday feasting can be expensive, but at least you can enjoy excellent holiday wines at bargain prices. There's a budget wine for every discriminating nostril or finicky taste bud. No matter what you're serving or how you're preparing it, these discount holiday wines are both delicious and cheap. (For more tips, also check out 8 Easy Ways To Slash Your Holiday Budget.)

Tweet

0

share

.....
MORE BUSINESS

- Senate shuns push for elimination of pet projects 11.30.10
 - EPA fines West's largest toxic waste dump \$300,000 11.30.10
 - Judge rejects Scanlon's motion to change plea 11.30.10
-

IN PICTURES: 9 Ways To Trim The Fat From Your Spending

Holiday Feasts

If you're planning on having a turkey with stuffing and all the fixings, wash it down with Australian 2008 Yellow Tail Riesling. This fresh fruity wine has a lemon/lime aroma, and with a price of around $7.98, it won't bust your budget. If you're considering a non-traditional feast, how about chili and Shiraz? The rich spicy red wine compliments a hearty bowl of spicy beef and beans. Try the South African 2008 D'Arenberg Stump Jump Shiraz at approximately $8.99.