Rosemount Botanicals

ROSEMOUNT Botanicals represent a quantum leap in Australian wine.

To create a new innovative style of wine, Rosemount have taken popular grape varieties and infused them with naturally derived botanical flavours.

The range includes sauvignon blanc with lemon and elderflower, chardonnay with green apple and cucumber and pinot grigio infused with blood orange and rosewater.

[yellow tail]

[YELLOW tail] has welcomed five new 187ml varieties dubbed the [yellow tail] Joeys.

These mini-wines have been designed to offer wine lovers something fresh and convenient, which can be enjoyed in moderation.

The Joeys are perfect any time a cheeky glass of wine (or two) is required.

Carlton Dry Fusion Black

CARLTON Dry Fusion Black is the next step in a new and exciting flavour journey for beer drinkers.

The recently released Carlton Dry Fusion Black is a bright lager, which combines subtle citrus sweetness with selected spices and low bitterness to deliver a refreshing, smooth, clean and crisp full-strength beer.

International beer

THIS summer, channel your inner tourist with the help of three premium lagers all with premium international heritage.

Asahi, Carlsberg and Kronenbourg 1664 are some of the most popular brews in the world.

Each has its own distinctive taste and proud roots: in Japan for Asahi; Denmark for Carlsberg; and France for Kronenbourg 1664.

ASM's new range of spirits

AUSTRALIAN company ASM

Liquor has launched five premium spirits with fresh new tastes: Kinkynero Dark Rum, Kinkylux White Rum, Jinn Dry Gin, Naked Scot Whisky and Tequila Blu.

Kinkynero, for example, is a rich dark Caribbean rum aged to perfection with subtle undertones of cocoa, vanilla and raisins.
